Royal Holloway Scholarships Terms and Conditions Appendix 2027-28

This appendix outlines the possible agreed scholarships for the next academic year and the scholarship-specific terms and conditions.

1. Competitive Cash Award Undergraduate Scholarships 2

1.1 Barbara Raw Scholarships for English 2
1.2 Barbara Raw Scholarships for English Access 3
1.3 Elaine Etherton scholarship 5

2. Competitive Cash Award Postgraduate Scholarships 8

2.1 Dinah and Jessica Nichols Scholarship 8
2.2 The Gent Rust Scholarship 9

3. Competitive Tuition Fee Reduction Undergraduate Scholarships 10

3.1 Geoffrey Kneebone Scholarship 10
3.2 Everson Scholarship for Modern Languages 11
3.3 Royal Holloway University of London Teaching Centre Excellence Scholarship 12
3.4 The Millington Family Physics Access Scholarship 14

4. Competitive Tuition Fee Reduction Postgraduate Scholarships 15

4.1 Bedford Society Scholarship 16
4.2 Bradley de Glehn English Scholarship 17
4.3 Brian Harris Scholarship 18
4.4 Corky McGuinness Award in Musicology 19
4.5 David Cesarani Scholarship 20
4.6 Dr Pirkko Koppinen Scholarship 21
4.7 Headley Trust Scholarship 22
4.8 Herringham Scholarship 23
4.9 Katayoon Behboodi Scholarship 24
4.10 Royal Holloway GREAT India Scholarship 25
4.11 Royal Holloway GREAT Nigeria Scholarship 26
4.12 Royal Holloway GREAT Turkey Scholarship 28
4.13 The Koppinen Family Scholarship 30
4.14 The Professor Mike Walker OBE Scholarship 31
4.15 The Robert and Cheryle Poddubiuk Bedford Access scholarship 32

5. Automatic Tuition Fee Reduction Undergraduate Scholarships 33

5.1 Royal Holloway International Undergraduate Excellence Scholarship 33

6. Automatic Tuition Fee Reduction Postgraduate Scholarships 34

6.1 Royal Holloway India Postgraduate Scholarship 34
6.2 Royal Holloway Pakistan Postgraduate Scholarship 36
6.3 Royal Holloway Nigeria Postgraduate Scholarship 37
6.4 Royal Holloway International Postgraduate Scholarship (£2000) 38
6.5 Royal Holloway International Postgraduate Scholarship (£4000) 39
6.6 Royal Holloway Alumni Discount 40
6.7 University of London Alumni Discount 41
7. Department and Other Scholarships 43
7.1 Choral Scholarship 43
7.2 Donald Davies Computer Science Scholarship 43
7.3 Orchestral Scholarship 43
7.4 Organ Scholarship 43
7.5 Physics Scholarship 43
7.6 Royal Holloway International Study Centre Progression Scholarship 44

1. Competitive Cash Award Undergraduate Scholarships

1.1 Barbara Raw Scholarships for English

Five cash award scholarships are available to new first year undergraduate students from one of the eligible degree courses.

1.1.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new undergraduate students applying for one of the following eligible bachelors degree undergraduate course run by the Department of English and Modern Languages:

a. BA Comparative Literature and Culture and English
b. BA Drama and Creative Writing
c. BA English
d. BA English and American Literature
e. BA English and Classical Studies
f. BA English and Creative Writing
g. BA English and Drama
h. BA English and Film Studies
i. BA English and History
j. BA English with Philosophy
k. BA Modern Languages and English
l. BA Music and English

Applicants must study full-time.

To be considered for this award, applicants must have achieved high grades at A-level or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades. For example, previous applicants have achieved/been predicted AAA or equivalent.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

Successful applicants are normally required to maintain an average academic grade of at least 60% to continue to be eligible for the cash award after their first year.

Applicants cannot hold this scholarship in conjunction with the Barbara Raw Scholarship for English Access Scholarship.

1.1.2 Allocation

Applicants must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

Applicants will be also scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

1.1.3 Payment

This scholarship is awarded as a cash award of £5,000 in total, given in instalments over three years of study at Royal Holloway: £3,000 in year 1, £1,000 in year 2 and £1,000 in year 3.

Students on a four-year undergraduate degree who spend their third year on a placement will not receive any scholarship funding for that third year. However, for the fourth year of the undergraduate degree, the cash award will apply.

For students on a four-year course with no external placement or a five-year course with an external placement, the scholarship will be disbursed in the first three years of the degree course only.

1.2 Barbara Raw Scholarships for English Access

Two cash award scholarships are available for new first year undergraduate students with Home fee status, studying one of the eligible degree courses.

1.2.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new undergraduate students applying for one of the following eligible bachelors degree undergraduate course run by the Department of English and Modern Languages:

a. BA Comparative Literature and Culture and English
b. BA Drama and Creative Writing

c. BA English
d. BA English and American Literature
e. BA English and Classical Studies
f. BA English and Creative Writing
g. BA English and Drama
h. BA English and Film Studies
i. BA English and History
j. BA English with Philosophy
k. BA Modern Languages and English
l. BA Music and English

Applicants must have Home fee status.

Applicants must also meet the Widening Access criteria for the academic year they are applying for.

To be considered for this award, applicants must have achieved high grades at A-level or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades. For example, previous applicants have achieved/been predicted AAA or equivalent.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

Successful applicants are normally required to maintain an average academic grade of at least 60% to continue to be eligible for the cash award after their first year.

Applicants cannot hold this scholarship in conjunction with the Barbara Raw Scholarship for English Scholarship.

1.2.2 Allocation

Applicants must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

Applicants will be also scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

1.2.3 Payment

This scholarship is awarded as a cash award of £6000 in total, given in instalments over three years of study at Royal Holloway: £2,000 in year 1, £2,000 in year 2 and £2,000 in year 3.

Students on a four-year undergraduate degree who spend their third year on a placement will not receive any scholarship funding for that third year. However, for the fourth year of the undergraduate degree, the cash award will apply.

For students on a four-year course with no external placement or a five-year course with an external placement, the scholarship will be disbursed in the first three years of the degree course only.

1.3 Elaine Etherton scholarship

One cash award scholarship is available to a new first year UK undergraduate student of restricted means with outstanding academic potential.

1.3.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new first year undergraduate students applying for a bachelors degree undergraduate course in one of the following subject areas:

a. Biological Sciences
    a. BSc Biochemistry
    b. BSc Biochemistry with a Year in Industry
    c. BSc Biology
    d. BSc Biology with a Year in Industry
    e. BSc Biomedical Sciences
    f. BSc Biomedical Sciences with a Year in Industry
    g. BSc Ecology and Wildlife Conservation
    h. BSc Ecology and Wildlife Conservation with a Year in Industry
    i. BSc Genetics
    j. BSc Genetics with a Year in Industry
    k. BSc Medical Biochemistry
    l. BSc Medical Biochemistry with a Year in Industry
    m. BSc Zoology
    n. BSc Zoology with a Year in Industry
b. Earth Sciences
    a. BSc Environmental Geology
    b. BSc Environmental Geology with a Year in Industry
    c. BSc Environmental Science
    d. BSc Geology
    e. BSc Geology with a Year in Industry
    f. BSc Geosciences and Sustainable Energy
    g. Msci Envionmental Geoscience with an International Year
    h. MSci Environmental Geoscience
    i. MSci Environmental Geoscience with a Year in Industry
    j. MSci Environmental Science
    k. MSci Geoscience
    l. MSci Geoscience with an International Year
    m. MSci Geoscience with a Year in Industry

c. English
    a. BA English
    b. BA English and American Literature
    c. BA English and Classical Studies
    d. BA English and Creative Writing
    e. BA English and Drama
    f. BA English and Film Studies
    g. BA English and History
    h. BA English with Philosophy
d. Geography
    a. BA Environment and Social Change
    b. BA Geography
    c. BA Geography, Culture and Identity
    d. BA Geography, Geopolitics and Global Affairs
    e. BA Human Geography
    f. BSc Geography
    g. BSc Geography, Environment and Climate
    h. BSc Physical Geography
e. History
    a. BA History
    b. BA History and Music
    c. BA History and Philosophy
    d. BA History with an International Year
    e. BA History, Politics and International Relations
f. Law
    a. LLB Law
    b. LLB Law (Accelerated Two Year Degree)
    c. LLB Law with a Year in Industry
    d. LLB Law with Business
    e. LLB Law with Business with a Year in Industry
    f. LLB Law with Criminology
    g. LLB Law with Criminology with a Year in Industry
    h. LLB Law with International Relations
    i. LLB Law with International Relations with a Year in Industry
    j. LLB Law with Modern Languages (French)
    k. LLB Law with Modern Languages (German)
    l. LLB Law with Modern Languages (Italian)
    m. LLB Law with Modern Languages (Spanish)
    n. LLB Law with Philosophy
    o. LLB Law with Politics
    p. LLB Law with Politics with a Year in Industry

q. LLB Law with Sociology
r. LLB Law with Sociology with a Year in Industry

g. Physics
    a. BSc Astrophysics
    b. BSc Physics
    c. BSc Physics with Music
    d. BSc Physics with Particle Physics
    e. BSc Physics with Philosophy
    f. BSc Theoretical Physics
    g. MSci Astrophysics
    h. MSci Physics
    i. MSci Physics with Particle Physics
    j. MSci Theoretical Physics
h. Psychology
    a. BSc Psychology
    b. BSc Psychology Clinical and Cognitive Neuroscience
    c. BSc Psychology, Clinical and Mental Health Psychology
    d. BSc Psychology, Lifespan and Developmental Psychology
    e. BSc Psychology, Social and Applied Psychology

Applicants must have achieved AAA at A-level or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

Applicants must have Home fee status.

Applicants must confirm in the scholarship statement that they have applied or intend to apply for Student Finance.

Applicants have a family income of less than £25,000, as verified by the Student Loans Company (SLC).

Applicants who do not meet the household income criteria for this award will have their scholarship offer withdrawn.

1.3.2 Allocation

Applicants must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be contacted by email once applications have closed to request consent to contact the Student Loan Company to share their household income information and details of their maintenance loan application with the University.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

Applicants will be also scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

1.3.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a cash award of £5,000 per annum, which in turn is paid in equal termly instalments at the start of each term in October, January, and April, for the first three years of study.

Students on a four-year undergraduate degree who spend their third year on a placement will not receive any scholarship funding for that third year. However, for the fourth year of the undergraduate degree, the cash award will apply.

For students on a four-year course with no external placement or a five-year course with an external placement, the scholarship will be disbursed in the first three years of the degree course only.

2. Competitive Cash Award Postgraduate Scholarships

2.1 Dinah and Jessica Nichols Scholarship

One cash award scholarship for a new full time or part-time Masters student applying for eligible Masters degrees.

2.1.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate Masters students applying for one of the following courses:

a. MA English Literature: Medieval Studies
b. MA History
c. MA History: Crusader Studies
d. MA History: Gender History
e. MA History: Hellenic Studies
f. MA Holocaust Studies
g. MA Public History

Applicants must have achieved a UK First Class Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

2.1.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application and copies of recent transcripts attached to the scholarship application.

2.1.3 Payment

This scholarship is awarded as a cash award of £6,250 in total, given in equal termly instalments, over the period of study at the University.

Full-time students will be paid over three terms (one academic year) and part-time students will be paid over six terms (two academic years).

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

2.2 The Gent Rust Scholarship

Two cash award scholarship for new full time or part-time postgraduate students from the UK studying eligible Masters degrees.

2.2.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate Masters students applying for an MSc with one of the following departments:

a. Biological Sciences
b. Computing, Security and Mathematics (This excludes courses where the main subject is Mathematics)
c. Physical Sciences and Engineering
d. Economics
e. Psychology

Applicants must have Home fee status.

Applicants must have achieved a UK 2:1 Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

2.2.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

The donor(s) may be involved in the allocation process of this scholarship.

2.2.3 Payment

This scholarship is awarded as a cash award of £8,000 in total, given in equal termly instalments, over the period of study at the University.

Full-time students will be paid over three terms (one academic year), and part-time students will be paid over six terms (two academic years).

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

3. Competitive Tuition Fee Reduction Undergraduate Scholarships

3.1 Geoffrey Kneebone Scholarship

Two tuition fee reduction scholarships are available to new first year undergraduate students holding an offer to study an eligible course in the Department of Mathematics.

3.1.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new first year undergraduate students applying for one of the following eligible bachelors degree undergraduate course run by the Department of Computing, Security & Mathematics:

a. BSc Mathematics
b. BSc Mathematics with Statistics
c. MSci Mathematics
d. BSc Mathematics and Physics
e. MSci Mathematics & Physics
f. BSc Mathematics with Philosophy
g. BSc Mathematics and Music

Applicants must have achieved ABB at A-level or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

3.1.2 Allocation

Applicants must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

Applicants will be also scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

3.1.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a £10,000 tuition fee reduction split over three years of study: £4,000 in Year 1, £3,000 in Year 2 and £3,000 in Year 3.

Students on a four-year undergraduate degree who spend their third year on a placement will not receive any scholarship funding for that third year. However, for the fourth year of the undergraduate degree, the tuition fee reduction will apply.

For students on a four-year course with no external placement or a five-year course with an external placement, the scholarship will be disbursed in the first three years of the degree course only.

3.2 Everson Scholarship for Modern Languages

One tuition fee waiver scholarship is available to new first year undergraduate students holding an offer to study an eligible course in the Department of English and Modern Languages.

3.2.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new first year undergraduate students applying for one of the following eligible bachelors degree undergraduate course in the subject area of Modern Languages:

a. BA Modern Languages
b. BA Modern Languages with History of Art and Visual Cultures
c. BA Modern Languages and Comparative Literature and Culture
d. BA Modern Languages and History of Art and Visual Culture
e. BA Modern Languages and History
f. BA Modern Languages with International Relations
g. BA Modern Languages and Drama
h. BA Modern Languages and Music
i. BA Modern Languages with Music
j. BA Modern Languages and English

Applicants must have Home fee status.

Applicants must study full-time.

Applicants must be resident in the UK.

To be considered for this award, applicants must have achieved high grades at A-level or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades. For example, previous applicants have achieved/been predicted AAA or equivalent.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

3.2.2 Allocation

Applicants must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

Applicants will be also scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

3.2.3 Payment

The scholarship is offered as a full tuition fee reduction available over three years of study.

Students on a four-year undergraduate degree who spend a year on a placement will not receive any scholarship funding for that year. However, for the other three years of the undergraduate degree, the tuition fee waiver will apply.

For students on a four-year course with no external placement or a five-year course with an external placement, the scholarship will be disbursed in the first three years of the degree course only.

3.3 Royal Holloway University of London Teaching Centre Excellence Scholarship

Two tuition fee reduction scholarships are available to new international students who are currently studying the Royal Holloway BSc Business Administration course at an eligible University of London Teaching Centre listed below.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for the University of London alumni discount.

3.3.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new undergraduate students applying for Second- or Third-year entry onto one of the following courses:

a. BSc Business and Management
b. BSc Management with Marketing
c. BSc Management with International Business
d. BSc Management with Human Resources

Applicants must be a current student of the Royal Holloway BSc Business Administration at one of the following University of London Recognised Teaching Centres:

a. Amity Global Institute (Singapore), Singapore
b. Athens International College (Athens), Greece
c. Beaconhouse International College (Faisalabad), Pakistan
d. Beaconhouse International College (Islamabad), Pakistan
e. Beaconhouse International College (Lahore), Pakistan
f. Blackstone School of Law (Lahore), Pakistan
g. British International University (Erbil), Iraq
h. Britts Imperial University College (Sharjah), UAE
i. Burhani College (Mumbai), India
j. Denning Business School PECHS (Karachi), Pakistan
k. Escola Superior de Propaganda e Marketing (Sao Paulo), Brazil
l. Euro University of Bahrain (Manama), Bahrain
m. European Research University (Ostrava), Czech Republic
n. IILM, India
o. Instituto Desarrollo, Paraguay
p. LGS Defence International Degree Programme (Gujrat), Pakistan
q. LGS Defence International Degree Programme (Islamabad), Pakistan
r. LGS Defence International Degree Programme (Lahore), Pakistan
s. MET Institute of International Studies (Mumbai), India
t. Metropolitan International United College (Abbottabad), Pakistan
u. Metropolitan International United College (Abbottabad), Pakistan
v. Metropolitan International United College (Sialkot), Pakistan
w. Podar World College (Mumbai), India
x. Roots IVY (Lahore), Pakistan
y. Russell Square International College (Mumbai), India
z. Saint Martin’s Institute of Higher Education (Hamrun), Malta
aa. The Institute of Legal Studies (Peshawar), Pakistan
bb. The Millennium Universal College (Islamabad), Pakistan
cc. The Millennium Universal College (Karachi), Pakistan
dd. The Millennium Universal College (Lahore), Pakistan
ee. The Millennium Universal College (Rawalpindi), Pakistan
ff. UCL Business School (Multan), Pakistan
gg. Universal College Lahore (Lahore), Pakistan
hh. Universidad Científica del Sur (Lima), Peru
ii. Universidad de Lima (Lima), Peru

Applicants must have achieved an average of 65% in their distance learning studies by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must have Overseas fee status.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

3.3.2 Allocation

Applicants must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

An interim degree transcript for the Royal Holloway BSc Business Administration course must also be provided as part of the scholarship application.

Applicants will be assessed based on academic performance and attendance to date.

Applicants will be also scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

3.3.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a £6,000 tuition fee reduction for the first year of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year.

Successful applicants cannot combine their scholarship with the University of London alumni discount.

3.4 The Millington Family Physics Access Scholarship

Two tuition fee reduction scholarships are available to new first year undergraduate students holding an offer to study an eligible course in the Department of Physical Sciences and Engineering.

3.4.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new first year undergraduate students applying for one of the following eligible undergraduate degree courses in the subject area of Physics & Astronomy:

a. BSc Astrophysics
b. BSc Physics
c. BSc Physics with Music
d. BSc Physics with Particle Physics
e. BSc Physics with Philosophy
f. BSc Theoretical Physics
g. MSci Astrophysics
h. MSci Physics
i. MSci Physics with Particle Physics
j. MSci Theoretical Physics

Applicants must have Home fee status.

Applicants must study full-time.

Applicants must be resident in the UK.

Applicants must also meet the Widening Access criteria for the academic year they are applying for.

Applicants must be currently attending a state school.

Applicants must have achieved AAB at A-level or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

A minimum of one of the successful applicants must identify as female.

Applicants cannot hold this scholarship in conjunction with the Physics Scholarship awarded by the Department.

3.4.2 Allocation

Applicants must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

Applicants will be also scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

3.4.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a £6,000 tuition fee reduction split over three years of study: £2,000 in Year 1, £2,000 in Year 2 and £2,000 in Year 3.

Students on a four-year undergraduate degree who spend their third year on a placement will not receive any scholarship funding for that third year. However, for the fourth year of the undergraduate degree, the tuition fee reduction will apply.

For students on a four-year course with no external placement or a five-year course with an external placement, the scholarship will be disbursed in the first three years of the degree course only. Students on an integrated foundation year degree will not be eligible for this scholarship.

4. Competitive Tuition Fee Reduction Postgraduate Scholarships

4.1 Bedford Society Scholarship

Three tuition fee reduction scholarships are available for any student studying a taught Masters degree with any eligible department. One scholarship is allocated to each of the following schools: Faculty of Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences, Faculty of Business and Law and Faculty of Science.

4.1.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate taught Masters students applying for a Masters degree with one of the following departments:

a. Faculty of Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences
    a. Department of Economics
    b. Department of History and Classics
    c. Department of English and Modern Languages
    d. Department of Geography and Sociology
    e. Department of Politics, International Relations, and Philosophy
b. Faculty of Business and Law
    a. Royal Holloway Law School
    b. Department of Social Work
c. Faculty of Science
    a. Department of Psychology

Applicants must have achieved a UK First Class Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

4.1.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

4.1.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £8,100.

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. For part-time students, this will be split over their first two years of study only.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.2 Bradley de Glehn English Scholarship

Two tuition fee reduction scholarships up to £9,600 for eligible taught postgraduate degrees within the Department of English.

4.2.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate Masters students applying for one of the following courses:

a. MA English Literature: Medieval Studies
b. MA English Literature: Victorian Literature, Art and Culture
c. MA English Literature
d. MA Creative Writing

Applicants must have achieved a UK 2:1 Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

4.2.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

4.2.3 Payment

These scholarships are offered as a tuition fee reduction of £9,600.

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. For part-time students, this will be split over their first two years of study only.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.3 Brian Harris Scholarship

Two tuition fee reduction scholarships for UK students applying for eligible Humanities or Business and Management postgraduate degrees who have studied a Humanities degree at undergraduate level.

4.3.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate Masters students applying for one of the following courses:

a. MA Ancient History
b. MA Classical Art and Archaeology
c. MA Classics
d. MA Creative Writing
e. MA English Literature
f. MA English Literature: Medieval Studies
g. MA English Literature: Victorian Literature, Art and Culture
h. MA History
i. MA History: Crusader Studies
j. MA History: Gender History
k. MA History: Hellenic Studies
l. MA Holocaust Studies
m. MA Public History
n. MSc Accounting and Financial Management
o. MSc AI for Business
p. MSc Digital Marketing
q. MSc Human Resource Management
r. MSc International Business Management
s. MSc Marketing

Applicants must have Home fee status.

Applicants must demonstrate financial need for the scholarship.

Applicants must be awarded, or expect to be awarded, an undergraduate degree in a Humanities subject.

Applicants must have achieved a UK 2:1 Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

4.3.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application and copies of recent transcripts attached to the scholarship application.

Applicants must provide evidence of the financial support received at undergraduate level and the basis on which this was received and why. Acceptable sources of evidence could include Student Finance England, Student Awards Agency Scotland, Student Finance Wales, Student Finance Northern Ireland, University funded bursary, where this has been awarded on the basis of financial need.

4.3.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £10,000 only.

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. For part-time students, this will be split evenly over their first two years of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year for full-time students, or longer than two years for part-time students.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.4 Corky McGuinness Award in Musicology

One tuition fee reduction scholarship for any new full-time postgraduate student applying for MMus Music.

4.4.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate Masters students applying for MMus Music. All pathways are eligible.

Applicants must be applying for full-time study.

Applicants must have achieved a UK First Class Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

4.4.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

4.4.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £4,000.

This will apply in their first year of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.5 David Cesarani Scholarship

One tuition fee reduction to the value of £11,000 for MA Holocaust Studies for a new full-time or part-time student with Home or International fee status.

4.5.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate Masters students applying for MA Holocaust Studies.

Applicants must have achieved a UK First Class Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

4.5.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application and copies of recent transcripts attached to the scholarship application.

4.5.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £11,000. If the tuition fee for the chosen course is more than £11,000, this award will be made as a £11,000 tuition fee reduction only. If the tuition fee for the chosen course is less than £11,000, the remainder will be paid as a cash award to be used as a contribution to living costs.

If a cash award is applicable, it will be paid in equal termly instalments as a contribution towards living costs.

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. For part-time students, this will be split evenly over their first two years of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year for full-time students, or longer than two years for part-time students.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.6 Dr Pirkko Koppinen Scholarship

One tuition fee reduction scholarship for any new postgraduate student applying for the Medieval Studies pathway. The scholarship is provided as a tuition fee reduction to the value of £12,000 a year.

4.6.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate Masters students applying for MA English Literature: Medieval Studies.

Applicants must be applying for full-time study.

Applicants must have achieved a UK 2:1 Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

4.6.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

4.6.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £12,000. If the tuition fee for the chosen course is less than £12,000, the remainder will be paid as a cash award to be used as a contribution to living costs.

If a cash award is applicable, it will be paid in termly instalments as a contribution towards living costs.

This scholarship is only available for the first year of study. No additional payment is offered if the duration of the course is longer than one year.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.7 Headley Trust Scholarship

Two tuition fee reduction scholarship of £12,000 for new full-time postgraduate students studying MMus Music from the UK.

4.7.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate Masters students applying for MMus Music.

Applicants must have Home fee status.

Applicants must have achieved a UK First Class Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. This includes display first-class levels of excellence in their chosen area of specialism through a portfolio of professional work. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

Applicants must be ordinarily resident in the UK.

Applicants must have been educated in the UK.

4.7.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

4.7.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £12,000

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year for full-time students.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.8 Herringham Scholarship

At least one tuition fee reduction scholarship for new postgraduate students studying eligible degrees within the Department of History.

4.8.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate Masters students applying for one of the following courses:

a. MA History
b. MA History: Crusader Studies
c. MA History: Gender History
d. MA History: Hellenic Studies
e. MA Holocaust Studies

Applicants must have achieved a UK First Class Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

4.8.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application and copies of recent transcripts attached to the scholarship application.

4.8.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £8,000.

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. For part-time students, this will be split evenly over their first two years of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year for full-time students, or longer than two years for part-time students.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.9 Katayoon Behboodi Scholarship

One 50% tuition fee reduction scholarship for new full-time Masters students from Iran studying eligible degrees.

4.9.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate Masters students applying for one of the following courses:

a. MSc Physics by Research
b. MSc Information Security
c. MSc Electronic Engineering by Research
d. MSc Engineering Management
e. MSc Computer Science by Research
f. MSc Finance
g. MSc Accounting and Financial Management

Applicants must have Overseas fee status.

Applicants must be Iranian nationals and permanently ordinarily resident in Iran.

Applicants must have achieved a UK 2:1 Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

4.9.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application and copies of recent transcripts attached to the scholarship application.

Applicants must also a copy of their Iranian ID as evidence of their nationality and residency in Iran.

The donor(s) may be involved in the allocation process of this scholarship.

4.9.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of 50%. The actual monetary amount of the tuition fee reduction will depend on the tuition fee of the chosen course. Degree courses which include a year in industry are not eligible for this scholarship.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.10 Royal Holloway GREAT India Scholarship

One tuition fee reduction scholarship of £10,000 for a new full time postgraduate student from India studying any taught Masters subject.

No other University scholarship may be held in addition to this scholarship.

4.10.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to applicants who hold an offer for a postgraduate Masters degree for January 2027.
.
Applicants must be applying for full-time study.

Applicants must have Overseas fee status.

Applicants must be Indian passport holders and ordinarily resident in India.

Applicants must have completed, or be expected to complete, an undergraduate degree.

Applicants must demonstrate motivation and interest in their proposed subject area.

Applicants must meet the English language requirements of their chosen course.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

Applicants must be willing to commit to the following:

a. Establish an engagement with the UK as a scholar, through personal and academic fulfilment.
b. Attend a networking event of all UK-based GREAT scholars, to discuss experiences and capture perceptions of studying in the UK.
c. Maintain contact with the British Council and their HEI and act as an ambassador for the GREAT Scholarships, by sharing experiences of studying in the UK with future GREAT scholars.
d. Speak, on occasion, to potential candidates about your experience of studying in the UK as an alumnus of the GREAT Scholarships.

4.10.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

4.10.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £10,000 only.

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year for full-time students.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.11 Royal Holloway GREAT Nigeria Scholarship

One tuition fee reduction scholarship of £10,000 for a new full time postgraduate student from Nigeria studying any taught Masters subject starting in January 2027.

No other University scholarship may be held in addition to this scholarship.

4.11.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to applicants who hold an offer for a postgraduate Masters degree for January 2027
.
Applicants must be applying for full-time study.

Applicants must have Overseas fee status.

Applicants must be Nigerian passport holders and ordinarily resident in Nigeria.

Applicants must have completed, or be expected to complete, an undergraduate degree.

Applicants must demonstrate motivation and interest in their proposed subject area.

Applicants must meet the English language requirements of their chosen course.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

Applicants must be willing to commit to the following:

a. Establish an engagement with the UK as a scholar, through personal and academic fulfilment.
b. Attend a networking event of all UK-based GREAT scholars, to discuss experiences and capture perceptions of studying in the UK.
c. Maintain contact with the British Council and their HEI and act as an ambassador for the GREAT Scholarships, by sharing experiences of studying in the UK with future GREAT scholars.
d. Speak, on occasion, to potential candidates about your experience of studying in the UK as an alumnus of the GREAT Scholarships.

4.11.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

4.11.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £10,000 only.

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year for full-time students.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.12 Royal Holloway GREAT Turkey Scholarship

One tuition fee reduction scholarship of £10,000 for a new full time postgraduate student from Turkey studying any taught Masters subject.

No other University scholarship may be held in addition to this scholarship.

4.12.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to applicants who hold an offer for a postgraduate Masters degree for September 2027
.
Applicants must be applying for full-time study.

Applicants must have Overseas fee status.

Applicants must be Turkish passport holders and ordinarily resident in Turkey.

Applicants must have completed, or be expected to complete, an undergraduate degree.

Applicants must demonstrate motivation and interest in their proposed subject area.

Applicants must meet the English language requirements of their chosen course.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

Applicants must be willing to commit to the following:

a. Establish an engagement with the UK as a scholar, through personal and academic fulfilment.
b. Attend a networking event of all UK-based GREAT scholars, to discuss experiences and capture perceptions of studying in the UK.
c. Maintain contact with the British Council and their HEI and act as an ambassador for the GREAT Scholarships, by sharing experiences of studying in the UK with future GREAT scholars.
d. Speak, on occasion, to potential candidates about your experience of studying in the UK as an alumnus of the GREAT Scholarships.

4.12.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

4.12.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £10,000 only.

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year for full-time students.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.13 The Koppinen Family Scholarship

One tuition fee reduction scholarship of £10,000 for a new full-time or part-time student with Home or Overseas fee status with a financial need studying MA Creative Writing.

4.13.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate Masters students applying for MA Creative Writing.

Applicants must have achieved a UK 2:1 Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades. This includes relevant professional experience.

Applicants must be applying for their first Masters degree.

Applicants must demonstrate financial need for the scholarship.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

4.13.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

Applicants will be assessed on their financial need through their demonstration that without the financial support of the scholarship, they would not be able to undertake further study.

4.13.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £10,000.

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. For part-time students, this will be split over their first two years of study only.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.14 The Professor Mike Walker OBE Scholarship

One tuition fee reduction scholarship up to the value of £12,000 for a new full-time or part-time Masters student studying an eligible degree within the subject area of Computer Science and Information Security with Home or International fee status.

4.14.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate Masters students applying for one of the following courses:

a. MSc Information Security
b. MSc Information Security with a Year in Industry
c. MSc Computer Science by Research
d. MSc Artificial Intelligence
e. MSc Artificial Intelligence with a Year in Industry
f. MSc Computational Finance
g. MSc Computational Finance with a Year in Industry
h. MSc Data Science and Analytics
i. MSc Data Science and Analytics with a Year in Industry

Applicants must have achieved a UK 2:1 Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must be applying for their first Masters degree.

Applicants must demonstrate financial need for the scholarship.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

4.14.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

Applicants will be assessed on their financial need through their demonstration that without the financial support of the scholarship, they would not be able to undertake further study.

4.14.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction up to the value of £12,000. If the tuition fee for the chosen course is less than £12,000, this award will be made as a full tuition fee reduction and will only be the value of the tuition fee of the chosen course.

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. For part-time students, this will be split evenly over their first two years of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year for full-time students, or longer than two years for part-time students.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

4.15 The Robert and Cheryle Poddubiuk Bedford Access scholarship

One tuition fee reduction scholarship of £8,100 for students with a financial need to new full-time or part-time student studying for their first taught Masters degree from an eligible department or course.

4.15.1 Eligibility

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate taught Masters students applying for a Masters degree with one of the following departments:

a. Faculty of Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences
    a. Department of Economics
    b. Department of History and Classics
    c. Department of English and Modern Languages
    d. Department of Geography and Sociology
    e. Department of Politics, International Relations, and Philosophy
b. Faculty of Business and Law
    a. Royal Holloway Law School
    b. Department of Social Work
c. Faculty of Science
    a. Department of Psychology

Applicants must be applying for their first Masters degree.

Applicants must have achieved a UK First Class Honours Bachelors degree or equivalent by the first day of the first academic year of the course. Applicants will be considered with predicted grades but final scholarship awards will only be confirmed with official final grades.

Applicants must demonstrate financial need for the scholarship.

Applicants must also submit a strong scholarship statement.

4.15.2 Allocation

Students must submit a completed scholarship application form by the specified deadline. The scholarship supporting statement must be no longer than 6000 characters including spaces.

Applicants will be scored on how effectively the scholarship supporting statement responds to the criteria given on the scholarship webpage.

The strength of an applicant's previous academic background will also be considered. This will be assessed via the documents and information provided as part of their degree application.

Applicants will be assessed on their financial need through their demonstration that without the financial support of the scholarship, they would not be able to undertake further study.

4.15.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a tuition fee reduction of £8,100.

For full-time students, this will apply in their first year of study only. For part-time students, this will be split over their first two years of study only.

Successful applicants will not be eligible for any other tuition fee reduction scholarship or discount.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

5. Automatic Tuition Fee Reduction Undergraduate Scholarships

5.1 Royal Holloway International Undergraduate Excellence Scholarship

Scholarships are available to all new undergraduate full-time students who achieve the equivalent of BBB in A-Levels or equivalent and who have Overseas fee status.

5.1.1 Eligibility

Applicants must have Overseas fee status.

Applicants must have achieved the equivalent of BBB in their level 3 qualifications as stipulated in the entry requirement equivalencies on our website.

These scholarships are open to new undergraduate students who hold an offer to study an undergraduate course at Royal Holloway, University of London for the next academic year. Deferred offers and applications for academic years after the next immediate academic year are not eligible.

Applicants must be self-funded.

Applicants must complete their studies in person at one of the Royal Holloway campuses in the UK.

Applicants currently enrolled on an International Foundation Year or International Year One RHISC course must achieve 60% or more to be eligible when progressing to the Royal Holloway course.

Applicants applying for Second- or Third-year entry from a University of London Recognised Teaching Centre are not eligible.

5.1.2 Allocation

Scholarships will be automatically allocated.

Ordinary residency will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

No additional scholarship application is required.

5.1.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a £3,000 tuition fee reduction per year for up to four years of study.

Students on a four-year undergraduate degree who spend their third year on a placement will not receive any scholarship funding for that third year. However, for the fourth year of the undergraduate degree, the scholarship funding will apply.

Students who join in Second-Year entry will receive two years of scholarship funding and those who join in Third-Year entry will receive one year of scholarship funding. Scholarship funding will not apply for any placement years (e.g. year in industry, Study Abroad year, etc.).

Successful applicants cannot combine their scholarship with the following financial awards (unless stipulated in the other award otherwise):

a. Tuition fee reduction and/or discount,
b. Internal scholarship cash award
c. Recognised partnership discounts, including the progression fee discount which is available to all progressing RHISC students.

Successful applicants cannot combine their scholarship with the 10% progression fee discount which is available to all progressing RHISC students.

Successful applicants who interrupt in a year of study for which they have received the tuition fee reduction, will have the scholarship pro-rated.

6. Automatic Tuition Fee Reduction Postgraduate Scholarships

6.1 Royal Holloway India Postgraduate Scholarship

Scholarships are available to all new postgraduate full-time students who are ordinarily resident within India.

6.1.1 Eligibility

Applicants must have Overseas fee status.

Applicants must be ordinarily resident in India at the point of their application for postgraduate study.

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate students who hold an offer to study a full-time Masters degree course at Royal Holloway, University of London for the September or January entry of the next academic year. Deferred offers and applications for academic years after the next immediate academic year are not eligible.

Applicants must be self-funded.

Applicants must pay their tuition fee deposit by the stipulated deadline on the scholarship webpage.

Applicants must complete their studies in person at one of the Royal Holloway campuses in the UK.

6.1.2 Allocation

Scholarships will be automatically allocated.

Ordinary residency will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

No additional scholarship application is required.

6.1.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a £6,000 tuition fee reduction for the first year of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year.

Successful applicants cannot combine this scholarship with the following financial awards:

a. Tuition fee reduction and/or discount
b. Internal scholarship cash award
c. Recognised partnership discounts including the progression fee discount which is available to all progressing RHISC students.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value. If an applicant is eligible for scholarships of equal monetary value, the applicant will be awarded the competitive scholarship.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

Successful applicants who interrupt in the first year of study for which they have received the tuition fee reduction, will have the scholarship pro-rated.

6.2 Royal Holloway Pakistan Postgraduate Scholarship

Scholarships are available to all new postgraduate full-time students who are ordinarily resident within Pakistan.

6.2.1 Eligibility

Applicants must have Overseas fee status.

Applicants must be ordinarily resident in Pakistan at the point of their application for postgraduate study.

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate students who hold an offer to study a full-time Masters degree course at Royal Holloway, University of London for the September or January entry of the next academic year. Deferred offers and applications for academic years after the next immediate academic year are not eligible.

Applicants must be self-funded.

Applicants must pay their tuition fee deposit by the stipulated deadline on the scholarship webpage.

Applicants must complete their studies in person at one of the Royal Holloway campuses in the UK.

6.2.2 Allocation

Scholarships will be automatically allocated.

Ordinary residency will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

No additional scholarship application is required.

6.2.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a £6,000 tuition fee reduction for the first year of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year.

Successful applicants cannot combine this scholarship with the following financial awards:

a. Tuition fee reduction and/or discount
b. Internal scholarship cash award
c. Recognised partnership discounts including the progression fee discount which is available to all progressing RHISC students.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value. If an applicant is eligible for scholarships of equal monetary value, the applicant will be awarded the competitive scholarship.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

Successful applicants who interrupt in the first year of study for which they have received the tuition fee reduction, will have the scholarship pro-rated.

6.3 Royal Holloway Nigeria Postgraduate Scholarship

Scholarships are available to all new postgraduate full-time students who are ordinarily resident within Nigeria.

6.3.1 Eligibility

Applicants must have Overseas fee status.

Applicants must be ordinarily resident in Nigeria at the point of their application for postgraduate study.

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate students who hold an offer to study a full-time Masters degree course at Royal Holloway, University of London for the September or January entry of the next academic year. Deferred offers and applications for academic years after the next immediate academic year are not eligible.

Applicants must be self-funded.

Applicants must pay their tuition fee deposit by the stipulated deadline on the scholarship webpage.

Applicants must complete their studies in person at one of the Royal Holloway campuses in the UK.

6.3.2 Allocation

Scholarships will be automatically allocated.

Ordinary residency will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

No additional scholarship application is required.

6.3.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a £6,000 tuition fee reduction for the first year of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year.

Successful applicants cannot combine this scholarship with the following financial awards:

d. Tuition fee reduction and/or discount
e. Internal scholarship cash award
f. Recognised partnership discounts including the progression fee discount which is available to all progressing RHISC students.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value. If an applicant is eligible for scholarships of equal monetary value, the applicant will be awarded the competitive scholarship.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

Successful applicants who interrupt in the first year of study for which they have received the tuition fee reduction, will have the scholarship pro-rated.

6.4 Royal Holloway International Postgraduate Scholarship (£2000)

Scholarships are available to all new postgraduate full-time students who are ordinarily resident within an eligible country.

6.4.1 Eligibility

Applicants must have Overseas fee status.

Applicants must be ordinarily resident in one of the following countries at the point of their application for postgraduate study:

a. Azerbaijan
b. Kazakhstan
c. Saudi Arabia
d. United Arab Emirates
e. Uzbekistan

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate students who hold an offer to study a full-time Masters degree course at Royal Holloway, University of London for the September or January entry of the next academic year. Deferred offers and applications for academic years after the next immediate academic year are not eligible.

Applicants must be self-funded.

Applicants must pay their tuition fee deposit by the stipulated deadline on the scholarship webpage.

Applicants must complete their studies in person at one of the Royal Holloway campuses in the UK.

6.4.2 Allocation

Scholarships will be automatically allocated.

Ordinary residency will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

No additional scholarship application is required.

6.4.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a £2,000 tuition fee reduction for the first year of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year.

Successful applicants cannot combine this scholarship with the following financial awards:

a. Tuition fee reduction and/or discount
b. Internal scholarship cash award
c. Recognised partnership discounts including the progression fee discount which is available to all progressing RHISC students.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value. If an applicant is eligible for scholarships of equal monetary value, the applicant will be awarded the competitive scholarship.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

Successful applicants who interrupt in the first year of study for which they have received the tuition fee reduction, will have the scholarship pro-rated.

6.5 Royal Holloway International Postgraduate Scholarship (£4000)

Scholarships are available to all new postgraduate full-time students who are ordinarily resident within an eligible country.

6.5.1 Eligibility

Applicants must have Overseas fee status.

Applicants must be ordinarily resident in one of the following countries at the point of their application for postgraduate study:

a. Algeria
b. Bahrain
c. Bangladesh
d. Brazil
e. Brunei
f. Cambodia
g. China
h. Colombia
i. Egypt
j. Ghana
k. Hong Kong
l. Indonesia
m. Iraq
n. Japan
o. Jordan
p. Kenya
q. Laos
r. Lebanon
s. Malaysia
t. Mexico
u. Morocco
v. Myanmar
w. Nepal
x. Peru
y. Philippines
z. Singapore
aa. South Africa
bb. South Korea
cc. Sri Lanka
dd. Taiwan
ee. Tanzania
ff. Thailand
gg. Tunisia
hh. Turkey
ii. Uganda
jj. Vietnam
kk. Zimbabwe

These scholarships are open to new postgraduate students who hold an offer to study a full-time Masters degree course at Royal Holloway, University of London for the September or January entry of the next academic year. Deferred offers and applications for academic years after the next immediate academic year are not eligible.

Applicants must be self-funded.

Applicants must pay their tuition fee deposit by the stipulated deadline on the scholarship webpage.

Applicants must complete their studies in person at one of the Royal Holloway campuses in the UK.

6.5.2 Allocation

Scholarships will be automatically allocated.

Ordinary residency will be assessed via the documents submitted as part of their degree application.

No additional scholarship application is required.

6.5.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a £4,000 tuition fee reduction for the first year of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year.

Successful applicants cannot combine this scholarship with the following financial awards:

a. Tuition fee reduction and/or discount
b. Internal scholarship cash award
c. Recognised partnership discounts including the progression fee discount which is available to all progressing RHISC students.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value. If an applicant is eligible for scholarships of equal monetary value, the applicant will be awarded the competitive scholarship.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

Successful applicants who interrupt in the first year of study for which they have received the tuition fee reduction, will have the scholarship pro-rated.

6.6 Royal Holloway Alumni Discount

Automatic scholarships are available to Royal Holloway University of London Alumni who successfully completed an undergraduate degree at Royal Holloway, University of London who enrol on to their first Royal Holloway, University of London postgraduate degree programme. The Progression Scholarship is 20% of the student's first-year tuition fees.

6.6.1 Eligibility

Applicants must be self-funded and enrol on to a current postgraduate degree programme at the University.

Applicants must meet one of the below criteria:

a. Successfully completed an Undergraduate degree at Royal Holloway, University of London
b. Successfully completed their modules on a recognised Visiting programme at Royal Holloway, University of London

Applicants will require Home or International Fee Status.

6.6.2 Allocation

Scholarships will be automatically allocated.

No additional scholarship application is required.

6.6.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a 20% tuition fee reduction. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year unless the course is ordinarily a one-year course undertaken part-time.

Successful applicants who undertake an ordinarily one-year postgraduate degree, for which they have received the tuition fee reduction, part-time will have the scholarship pro-rated.

Successful applicants cannot combine this scholarship with the following financial awards:

a. Tuition fee reduction and/or discount
b. Internal scholarship cash award
c. Recognised partnership discounts including the progression fee discount which is available to all progressing RHISC students.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value. If an applicant is eligible for scholarships of equal monetary value, the applicant will be awarded the competitive scholarship.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

Successful applicants who interrupt in the first year of study for which they have received the tuition fee reduction will have the scholarship pro-rated.

6.7 University of London Alumni Discount

Automatic scholarships are available to University of London Alumni who successfully completed an undergraduate degree at a recognised University of London institution and who enrol onto their first Royal Holloway, University of London postgraduate degree programme. The Scholarship is 10% of the student's first year tuition fees.

6.7.1 Eligibility

Applicants must be self-funded and enrol on to a current postgraduate degree programme at the University.

Applicants must be applying for their first Masters degree at Royal Holloway University of London.

Applicants must be a graduate of a University of London Worldwide programme or have successfully completed an Undergraduate degree from one of the eligible University of London institutions:

a. Birkbeck, University of London
b. Brunel, University of London
c. City, University of London
d. Courtauld Institute of Art
e. Goldsmiths, University of London
f. King's College London
g. London Business School
h. London School of Economics
i. Queen Mary, University of London
j. Royal Academy of Music
k. Royal Central School of Speech and Drama
l. Royal Veterinary College
m. SOAS, University of London
n. St George's, University of London
o. UCL
p. University of London Institute in Paris

Applicants will require Home or International Fee Status.

6.7.2 Allocation

Scholarships will be automatically allocated.

No additional scholarship application is required.

6.7.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a 10% tuition fee reduction. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year unless the course is ordinarily a one-year course undertaken part-time.

Successful applicants who undertake an ordinarily one-year postgraduate degree, for which they have received the tuition fee reduction, part-time will have the scholarship pro-rated.

Successful applicants cannot combine this scholarship with the following financial awards:

a. Tuition fee reduction and/or discount

b. Internal scholarship cash award
c. Recognised partnership discounts including the progression fee discount which is available to all progressing RHISC students.

Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value. If an applicant is eligible for scholarships of equal monetary value, the applicant will be awarded the competitive scholarship.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

Successful applicants who interrupt in the first year of study for which they have received the tuition fee reduction will have the scholarship pro-rated.

7. Department and Other Scholarships

7.1 Choral Scholarship

Competitive scholarships are available to students who are strong choral singers. Eligibility criteria and allocation process are set and administered by the Music Department as stated on the scholarship webpage at https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/studying-here/fees-and-funding/music-scholarships/choral-scholarship/.

7.2 Donald Davies Computer Science Scholarship

Competitive scholarships are available to new undergraduate students in the Computer Science department. Eligibility criteria and allocation process are set and administered by the Computer Science Department as stated on the scholarship webpage at https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/studying-here/fees-and-funding/scholarships/donald-davies-computer-science-scholarship/.

7.3 Orchestral Scholarship

Competitive scholarships are available to students who are instrumentalists of eligible instruments. Eligibility criteria and allocation process are set and administered by the Music Department as stated on the scholarship webpage at https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/studying-here/fees-and-funding/music-scholarships/orchestral-scholarships/.

7.4 Organ Scholarship

Competitive scholarships are available to students who are skilled organists. Eligibility criteria and allocation process are set and administered by the Music Department as stated on the scholarship webpage at https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/studying-here/fees-and-funding/music-scholarships/organ-scholarship/.

7.5 Physics Scholarship

Automatic scholarships are available to new high-achieving undergraduate students in the Physics Department. Eligibility criteria and allocation process are set and administered by the Physics Department as stated on the scholarship webpage at https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/studying-here/fees-and-funding/scholarships/physics-scholarship/.

7.6 Royal Holloway International Study Centre Progression Scholarship

Automatic scholarships are available to Royal Holloway International Study Centre students who successfully complete their pathway programme and progress on to Royal Holloway, University of London degree programmes. The Progression Scholarship is 10% of the student's first-year tuition fees.

7.6.1 Eligibility

Applicants must be self-funded and have a current undergraduate or postgraduate offer to study a degree programme at the University.
Applicants must successfully complete their pathway programme and progress on to Royal Holloway, University of London degree programmes.

7.6.2 Allocation

Scholarships will be automatically allocated.

No additional scholarship application is required.

7.6.3 Payment

This scholarship is offered as a 10% tuition fee reduction following the successful completion of their pathway for the first year of study only. No additional payment is offered in any following years if the duration of the programme is longer than one year.

Successful applicants cannot combine this scholarship with any other financial awards or scholarships available. Applicants who are eligible for or are considered for more than one scholarship, will be awarded the scholarship or discount with the highest monetary value. If an applicant is eligible for scholarships of equal monetary value, the applicant will be awarded the competitive scholarship.

All payments, discounts and fee reductions will only be made providing the student is enrolled at Royal Holloway on a postgraduate or undergraduate degree course at the time of the payment.

Successful applicants who interrupt in the first year of study for which they have received the tuition fee reduction will have the scholarship pro-rated.